TELEVISION OR FILMING ACCREDITATION PROCEDURES

International or National Broadcast Media, wishing to apply for Accreditation for any of the ERC events, should follow the procedures below:

1. Accreditation principles

1. Broadcast Media should apply for accreditation on Event by Events basis only.
2. Television channels, TV production companies or agencies who wish to film on event, are asked to conform to the following principles in order to ensure that media accreditation is authorised and will be given for the right access level.
3. ERC considers the media pass is a working tool and should be used only by authorized media who complete the criteria, and one of the main reasons is that Eurosport Events has contracted with exclusive broadcasters in several territories.
4. Television or filming crews must send their application to : antonios@eurosport.com
5. Websites: In case that motorsport or non motorsports websites, wishes to be accredited on event and also to broadcast ERC footage online, they have to apply for TV accreditation antonios@eurosport.com
6. On-board cameras: Drivers or teams wishes to install their own onboard cameras on their rally cars they should also follow the same procedures and apply for accreditation antonios@eurosport.com

2. Accreditation Forms
